Auxiliary Presents $700 to Hospital

The Women's Auxiliary of Riviera Community Hospital recently presented David M. Dickey, M.D., president of the hospital board of directors, with a check for $700 for added hospital facilities.

The check was presented to the hospital at the organization's recent installation by Mrs. William A. Bailey, immediate past president of the auxiliary.

The money will be used to provide a hydrocollator for the hospital. This instrument is a modern piece of hospital equipment which provides hot moist heat.

The money will also go to provide a hypothermia blanket which is a plastic blanket filled with cells in which cold water can be used to

OVERLOADING

Overloading a car with passengers is dangerous on three counts. Visibility is hampered, over-steering results and increased stopping distance is required.

Auxiliary Joins Anniversary Fete Of Association

The 56th Annual Convention of the California Pharmaceutical Association was held at the St. Francis Hotel at San Francisco last week. The 25th Annual Convention of the Women's Auxiliary to the California Pharmaceutical Association was held at this same time. The newly installed president of the Women's Auxiliary is Mrs. Fred C. Reese of Hermosa Beach. Installing officer was Mr. George Q. Baird, retired executive secretary of the association. Mrs. Reese has been an active member of the Women's Auxiliary to the South Bay Pharmaceutical Association, being their charter president in 1955-56, and serving again in its 1956-57 year. In 1960-61 she held the office of state parliamentarian and last year, served as third vice president for the Women's Auxiliary to the California Pharmaceutical Association.

Mrs. Reese resides with her husband Fred and daughter Marilyn at 2125 Manhattan Ave. Her married son, Todd, is in his junior year in the College of Pharmacy at the University of Southern California. Pharmacy has always been closely associated with Mrs. Reese, and will continue to be so, as her father was a pharmacist, her husband is a pharmacist, and now their son.

control body temperature. New drapes for the lobby will also come from these funds.

Directors Attend L.A. Convention

Directors of the Three Arts Dance Studio, located at 2252 W. Carson St. in Torrance, are attending the National Association of Dance and Affiliated Artists, Inc. at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Los Angeles, through Saturday. The dance classes in the studio will continue as usual during the session.

The directors of the studio are getting the latest in the study of the "Dance." "Wheeling" is new, thrilling and sensational and is now being taught at the Three Arts Dance Studio.

The instructors are bringing back new material in the dance-world for all levels of teaching in ballet, tap, and ballroom.

The Three Arts Dance Studio is planning a mid-summer dance recital in ballet, tap and ballroom and Hawaiian, July 29, which the public may attend.

Fall enrollments are now being taken at the studio for all ages in ballet, tap, ballroom and Hawaiian.
